Letter will go to the office in N York & get them of Sydney & cut out this receipt & I will paste it into a book as I am for Thompson but never knew what has become of it. Ca. Dawes has the charge of it. & he came back from Halifax having given it to some N. Eng. Quaker. Poor Lizzy has entirely rejected the Marquis de Longueuil. These things disturb her childhood very much. She plays with the Cat on the floor just the same, but she is startled out of her infancy; & plagues her. I shant have time for a word more. I can do nothing for your present emergency. I only would advise to have Emma on the spot they sail from, in light season. But Lord sir! if eggs is eggs, eels is less eels. Love to Aunt Priscilla Phebe & Mary. You dont know how I suffer at the thought of a pen. I should else have written to them. I have all but died of bronchitis occasioned by change of climate this last six months. I ought to have gone between the bouts to Italy, but I thought I would stout it out. Yours ever with love to my father & mother & brothers & sisters MWC.

drop - silently. Raise the money for something else, of the same persons. I had a note yesterday from Revell Phillips, telling me that Childs Legacy would be paid in about 5 weeks. B. B. & Co have orders to forward it, with the exception of what I retain here. I wish able to go to the Standard with the exception of 100 dollars, which D. will keep. I do not think it would be best to apply it to Garrison & the Liberator, any portion of it, but rather that some of those who have hitherto paid to the Standard should make instead, their such pay to Garrison. I enclose a letter to Mrs Follen. Let Emma bring the No's of C. Friend for 6 months, & a Mrs Follen - ~~a sugar spoon~~ the spoons & forks if she thinks best. I should be glad to have, and a constitution of the Non resistance Society, also in Mrs Andersons Stories for children, & "the raven" if you have a copy of it. Ask Mrs Follen to bring when she comes a roll of Standards containing my translation of Lastaunc Beaumont & the Haitian papers, & the one for the Meeting at the Melodeon. Or
